

Please do not take away the only radio station I listen to. K-Love radio plays music I want to listen to on a regular basis. It is also the only station in my area that I care to listen to. The programming they have is family friendly and does not play anything offensive to my hearing. I don't care for rap and hip-hop, country is same ol' same ol' and everyone else doesn't come in that clearly. Not to mention the fact that you would be taking away my choice to listen to my favorite station. K-Love has a clear and concise commitment to its listeners to play music that can be enjoyed by the whole family. There is nothing that can be construed as a "bad" influence on younger family members. The service provided by K-Love radio is family oriented, where other stations have a lack of or a disregard for values represented in our community and lifestyles. If the FCC wishes to expand these new LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator services, can the FCC guarantee that I will still be able to listen to a radio station that plays contemporary christian music, has a news program that tells the news honestly, gives uplifting stories of people, and is commercial free? And will this "new broadcast service" sufficiently satisfy me and however many others as to the type of music and programming we want and are used to having? There is a saying: if it ain't broke don't fix it. Take that into consideration, please. If you just absolutely have to force LPFM's on us at least find a way to use a different level of air space so we can keep our FM translator service. That would be greatly appreciated by all of us who love our K-Love radio station. I listen to mine on frequency 89.1, and am more than happy with what I hear. It would not be comforting to know that I would no longer be able to listen to my favorite radio station. How would you like it if you were told "sorry, but we're changing the rules and you'll lose your choices"? The public will be losing a service that is sadly lacking in most other media and radio stations. HONESTY, VALUE OF FAMILY, DECENCY, CLEAN MESSAGES, HOPEFULNESS, FORTHRIGHTNESS, and most important, EXCELLENT MUSIC is what we get when we listen to K-Love. Thank you for your time. Again, I love my K-Love just fine thank you very much. sincerely, Caryn Awalt
